(VA) BRANCH

The BEVERLY ANDERSON SCHOLARSHIP
2017-2018 Academic Year

AAUW is a nationwide network of more than 100,000 members and donors, 1,000 branches, and 500 college/university institution partners. For 130 years, AAUW members have examined and taken positions on the fundamental issues of the day - educational, social, economic, and political. Our commitment to our mission is reflected in all aspects of our work. AAUW's mission is to advance equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, philanthropy, and research.

ELIGIBILITY

The Fairfax City Branch of AAUW is offering a scholarship to a woman who has returned to college after an interruption to her college career and is pursuing a bachelor's degree at George Mason University. The scholarship amount may be as much as $6000 and must be used by the end of the 2017-2018 academic year. Of particular interest to the selection committee are individuals with financial need, and transfers from community college programs.

To be eligible for this scholarship, she must be enrolled for the upcoming term with a minimum of nine credits at George Mason University. She must have completed at least one year of college and need a minimum of two additional semesters of course work in order to graduate. A grade point average of 3.0 or above is required.

GUIDELINES

Scholarship recipients will be notified of awards in May 2017, with funds available by fall 2017. Funds may be used for tuition, school fees, and/or books at George Mason University. The award is not renewable, but the applicant may reapply for future scholarships, provided all eligibility requirements are met.
