

The Fairfax City Branch of AAUW presents

Book & Author Luncheon

Saturday, November 2, 2013, 11 am to 2 pm

Country Club of Fairfax • 5110 Ox Road, Fairfax, VA

$40 per person (includes luncheon)

The characters in this year's crop of featured books were all shaped by the extraordinary times in which they lived.

-  Sarah Blake, The Postmistress. Three women's lives are intertwined during World War II in this novel set on Cape Cod.
-  Sharon Chang, Escaped Alone: A Memoir of an Incomplete Southerner. This young woman felt the injustices in her community and began her search for means to a more tolerant society.
-  Karin Tanabe, The List. This juicy political novel involves a well-known senator and what happens when news media and politics collide.
-  Ellen Crosby, Multiple Exposure. The first Sophie Medina mystery is a gem of intrigue in the shadowy world of CIA operatives.
-  Jefferson Morley, Snow-Storm in August: Washington City, Francis Scott Key, and the Forgotten Race Riot of 1835. Key, Andrew Jackson, and a teen-aged slave accused of murder come together during this historic time in the nation's capital.

This annual event is sponsored by AAUW Fairfax City Branch to raise funds for scholarships for women in our area. It also helps our national association provide financial help to women in education and other promising careers.
